Privacy Policy

NeuraLegion Ltd. ("NeuraLegion", "our," "us," or "we"), an Israeli company with its principal place of business in Tel Aviv, Israel, is the owner and operator of <https://www.neuralegion.com> and <https://nexploit.app/> (the "Website"), which is intended to supply various services as more fully described in the Website (the "Services"). We care about your privacy and we are committed to protecting your information.

This Privacy Policy constitutes an integral part of our Terms of Use, Client Agreement and Partner Agreement and is subject to the provisions thereof, including with respect to Limitation of Liability and governing law. It is advised that you read our Privacy Policy as part of your evaluation process and to return to it again when we notify you of changes to any of our terms, from time to time.

This Privacy Policy also governs personal information that NeuraLegion collects from its customers, partners, attendees and online visitors ("you" or "your") in connection with your use of NeuraLegion's websites and NeuraLegion's services, applications and products (including support, training and education), and corporate meetings and other events (collectively, the "Services") where we post or link to this Privacy Statement, as well as information we automatically collect from your online visits (e.g. data collected via cookies).

For the purposes of this Privacy Policy, "personal information" means any information that, by itself, can identify you or can be combined with other information to identify you. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

Your continued use of our service(s) and/or the website indicates your acceptance of the terms and conditions in this Privacy Policy.

What is Covered in This Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy clearly indicates:

1. What personally identifying information NeuraLegion collects.
2. How NeuraLegion uses the information.
3. Who NeuraLegion may share the information.
4. Legal basis we have for processing your personal data
5. How long we store the information
6. What choices are available to users regarding collection, use and distribution of the information.

7. What types of security procedures are in place to protect the loss, misuse or alteration of information under NeuraLegion's control.
8. How users can correct any inaccuracies in the information.

What Information Do We Collect and How is it Used?

Legal Basis of Processing

NeuraLegion uses your personal data provided by you to supply you with services requested by you, to send important notices and for any internal purposes such as auditing, data analysis and research to provide you with relevant information needed for you to make informed purchasing decisions.

NeuraLegion may rely on any of the following legal bases in order to collect, use and process your personal information:

- Legitimate Interest
 - NeuraLegion's legitimate interest in providing its website and making our Services available to you, provided our interest is not infringing any of your rights and freedoms.
- Your Consent
 - Where NeuraLegion has obtained your consent to process your personal information for certain activities. Consent may be withdrawn by you at any time by contacting privacy@NeuraLegion.com, noting that your withdrawal of consent will not affect the lawfulness of any use of your personal information by NeuraLegion based on your consent prior to withdrawal.
- Contractual Obligations
 - To fulfil any contractual obligations, such as where you have purchased a product or service from NeuraLegion. For example, we may require your contact details in order to deliver your order if you have purchased a product from us.
- Compliance and Our legal Obligations
 - For compliance with NeuraLegion's legal obligations where applicable laws require NeuraLegion to process your personal information.

Should you have any questions or require any clarification or additional information regarding the legal basis on which we collect your personal information, please contact us at privacy@NeuraLegion.com.

How Long We Store Your Information

NeuraLegion may retain any of your personal information data as long as is required and necessary for us to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected, in full accordance with NeuraLegion's record retention policy and applicable law.

Cross-Border Data Transfers

NeuraLegion may transfer your personal information to other NeuraLegion entities located in several different countries and jurisdictions around the world if required for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy. This may include transferring your personal data to countries outside your home country, including, if you are within the European Economic Area (EEA), outside of this area, which may not have the same level of protection as your home country. For example, since NeuraLegion is headquartered in Israel, NeuraLegion entities in the EEA may need to send your personal information to our servers located in Israel or the US for legitimate business purposes. In order to provide adequate protection for the transfer of your personal information, we rely on various mechanisms, including Binding Corporate Rules, EU Standard Contractual Clauses and/or the need to process your personal information in order to provide the requested products or services, as the bases for transferring your personal information.

How does NeuraLegion share your personal information?

NeuraLegion will not sell personal information to third parties without your consent.

We may disclose or transfer personal information provided by you to us or collected by us with third parties for the purposes described below.

- NeuraLegion Subsidiaries
 - We may share your personal information with our subsidiaries worldwide in order to improve our website and/or the Services, and to manage our customer relationships.
- Third-Party Vendors/Service Providers
 - We may, from time-to-time, rely on third-party vendors, consultants and other service providers to perform certain functions or to provide certain services on our behalf and under our instructions in order to make our websites and the Services available to you. For example, we may engage third parties to provide customer support or assist us in protecting our systems.

- Business Partners

- We may share your information with third parties with whom we do business, including in connection with your purchase of a NeuraLegion service through a business partner. Subject to NeuraLegion's business model and its regional coverage, NeuraLegion may not be able to provide the products or services directly to you. In these instances, NeuraLegion may disclose information to its business partners for reselling, marketing and other business purposes related to your specific interest in our products and/or services. We will only share your personal information with business partners who agree to abide by applicable laws and to protect your personal information and use it solely for the purposes specified by NeuraLegion.

- Legal Obligations and Rights

- To the extent such disclosure/transfer is required by law or in connection with any ongoing or prospective legal proceedings. We may disclose your personal information:
 - in connection with the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims;
 - to comply with laws or to respond to lawful requests or legal process;
 - for fraud or security monitoring purposes (e.g. to detect and prevent cyberattacks);
 - to protect the rights of NeuraLegion or its employees; or
 - as otherwise permitted by applicable law.

- Business Reorganization

- We may share your personal information in connection with a sale or business transaction (e.g., merger or acquisition). If we restructure or sell all or part of our business or business operations, we may transfer your information as part of that activity. Where this is the case your information will be used in accordance with this Privacy Policy unless you are notified otherwise;

NeuraLegion may also use or share aggregate data (data from which personal information has been removed) for any purpose.

Except as described above, NeuraLegion will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.

How does NeuraLegion store and protect your personal information?

NeuraLegion takes all reasonable steps to protect your information from loss, misuse, unauthorised access or disclosure, alteration, or destruction, including through the use of encryption when collecting or transferring sensitive data such as credit card information.

For those in the European Economic Area (“EEA”), any data that you provide to us or that we collect from you may be transferred to and stored at, a destination outside the EEA. We ensure that appropriate security measures are in place to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, access to your personal data is limited to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. Your personal data will only be processed on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

What rights and choices do you have regarding your personal information?

Email and Marketing Communication

NeuraLegion endeavours to provide you with options with relation to the personal information you provide, including choices with respect to marketing materials. You may manage your receipt of marketing and non-transactional communications by: (i) unsubscribing to communications by clicking on the “unsubscribe” link located at the bottom of our marketing emails; or (ii) checking certain boxes found on specific forms we use to collect personal information.

Exercising your Rights

This section applies to any personal data collected by NeuraLegion from EU residents.

Access, update or correct your data we hold: If you wish to confirm that NeuraLegion is processing your personal data, or if you would like to access, update or correct the personal data NeuraLegion holds about you, please send an email to data.request@NeuraLegion.com, with the words “Data Subject Rights Request” in the subject line.

Erase, prevent or Opt-Out: You can opt-out of marketing communications at any time by unsubscribing.
